

Father/Son Weekend 1992

1. What has been the one of the highlights of the weekend thus far for you?
2. What was one of your reservations about coming on this weekend?
3. As you look back to last week, what was the greatest challenge you faced?
4. (Father's) As you look back to high school, describe what you did, who you were with, and how you felt about one of your first dating experiences.
5. (Son's) Describe the traits that you would look for in a future wife, and guesstimate if and when you think you would get married.
6. (Father's) Who is the person who has had the most profound impact on your life? What is one thing you want your son to know about that person.
7. (Son's) Finish this sentence, and then tell why. "Dad, the thing about your life that most impacts me is..." Also, tell why.
8. (Father's) Describe the most meaningful time you have ever had with your son.
9. (Son's) Describe the most meaningful time you have ever had with your dad.
10. (Father's) Name the top two, "Proudest Moments," of fathering your son.
11. (Son's) Name the top two, "Proudest Moments," where you were proud of your dad.
12. As you look to the future, what can you do to make the father/son relationship just get better and better?
13. "The hardest thing about being me, that I want you to know, is..."
